

COMMISSIONED
Design

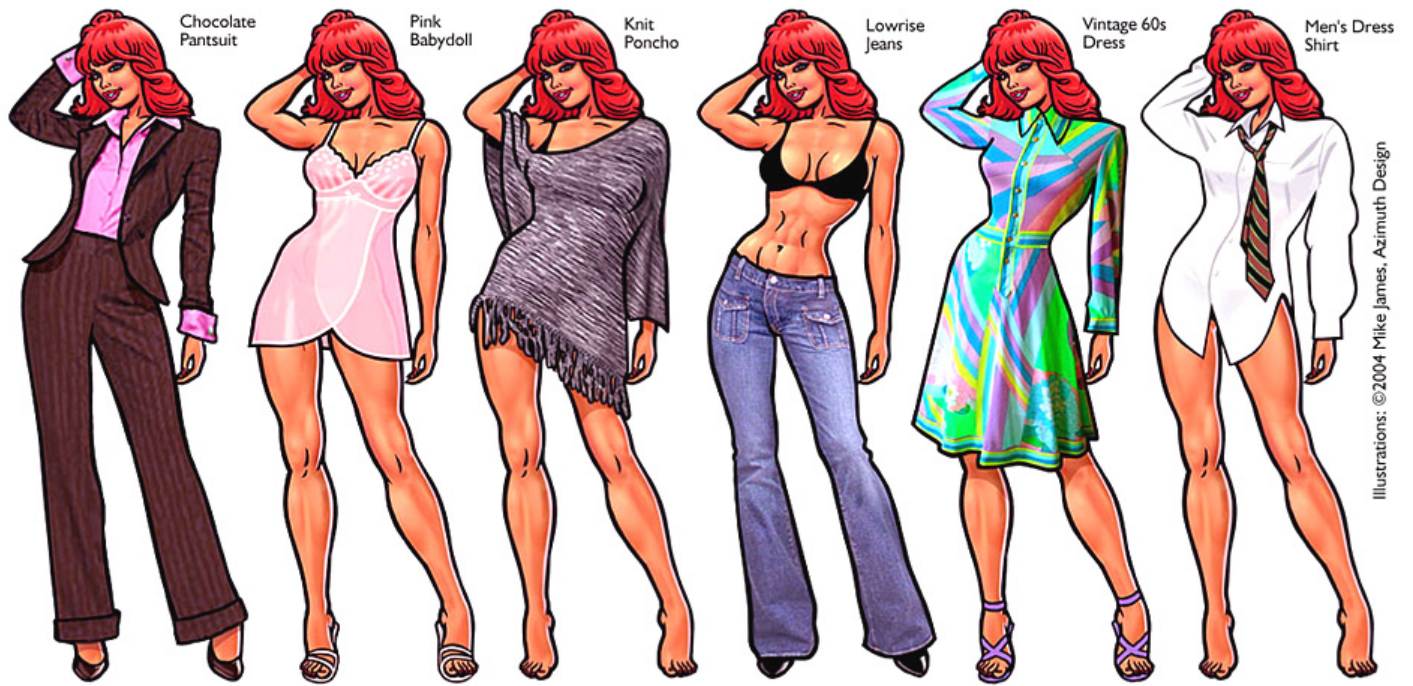

You can hire Mike to create a design.

A very interesting idea, "Couture Crazy" was an online vintage clothing store outlet for women. Mike created a mascot for Couture Crazy, a sort of "paper doll". At the store, each clothing item could be laid out on top of a lifesize cutout of Mike's girl and a picture snapped. The pictures of clothing could then be sent to Mike. In the computer he'd position it on his girl.

Eventually, the plan was to create a whole line of paper-doll models, different ages, ethnicities, sizes, etc. Here's the first girl, stripped to black undies and some of the samples of her wearing items up for sale

This is a proposed masthead for a fetish clothing website. Both the Illustration and Design are by Mike James
